Vicki Lee joins Julius Baer as new Group Head Greater China

Julius Baer, the leading Swiss private banking group, announced today the appointment of Vicki Lee as Group Head Greater China. She will report to David Shick, Head Private Banking Greater China at Bank Julius Baer.

Hong Kong, 11 June 2018 – Bank Julius Baer has appointed Vicki Lee as new Group Head Greater China. Based in Hong Kong, she will be responsible for growing and strengthening the Bank’s franchise in the Greater China market.

Vicki brings over 20 years of extensive experience in private banking to this role. Prior to joining Julius Baer, she was Country Team Head, China Market at UBS Wealth Management, where she had worked since 2006. Before that, she held senior wealth management roles at HSBC and Standard Chartered Bank.

“Greater China is one of the highest growth regions and is a very important market for Bank Julius Baer. The demand for wealth services is growing rapidly. We are delighted to have Vicki joining us as we continue to grow our business in the region,” said David Shick, Head Private Banking Greater China.
